

OUR NEXT-DOOR NEIGHBORS.

Pickings by Star Reporters in Neighboring Cities and Towns.

LEXINGTON, KY.

Physicians report considerable sickness in the city.

Miss Katie Tunis, of Danville, is visiting Miss George Cotton at Versailles.

A large number of sheep have been killed by dogs in the Hutchison district.

Another excursion of colored people went down to Cincinnati early yesterday morning.

The Home of the Friendless gratefully acknowledge the receipt of $15 donated by Mr. William Campbell.

Hon. H. A. M. Henderson is paying his Lexington friends a visit previous to his departure for California.

Protracted meeting begins at Hutchison Station Church next week. It will be conducted by Mr. Harris.

The alarm of fire night before last was caused by the burning of a small frame house on the L. C. & L. R. R., west of the old trestle. Loss, small.

Farmers say that they never recollect a finer crop of grass at this season of the year than that which has sprung up since the great drought last spring.

Dr. Stephen Ritchey, of Liberty, Mo., after an absence of twenty-one years, is now visiting his sister, Mrs. Uriah Stone, who resides on the banks of old Elk River Creek.

A pigeon shooting match near Bergen Point, last Friday, Dr. Zellner killed 47 and maimed 3, Colonel Butler killed 44 and maimed 6, and Mr. Dexter killed 43 and maimed 7.

Harry Small, who stabbed Charles Steele in the neck a few days ago at the Corner House, had his examining trial before Judge Kinkaid on Tuesday, and held to bail in the sum of $1,500.

A negro, named Sam Haines, was almost fatally shot last Saturday night, at Versailles, by Marshal Freeman. It appears that Haines unhitched Mr. Hatt's horse and drove out of town, but was overtaken by the Marshal who shot Haines through the body.

The following gentlemen are on their way from the East to Lexington, to attend the races, which begins next Monday: Messrs. Shepherd, F. Knapp, George B. A. Leary, Captain Jake Vanderbilt, Charles Kerner, David and Allie Bonner, Wm. Trumbull, Joseph Harker, Mr. Griswold, Major Morton, Thomas Patton, Foster Dewey, Frank Ellis of Philadelphia, Charles Backman, Sam Sage, E. H. Schenck, Hon. Charles M. Reed of Erie, Hon. E. J. Powers of Springfield, and L. Dunn, Esq., the Sage of Saratoga. Mr. B. J. Treacy, the enterprising horseman of this city, will receive the party in good style.

Mrs. Chris. Eberling is entertaining Mrs. Dowty, of Venice.

Mr. Thomas Elton is suffering with paralysis in the right side.

The public schools close to-day and to-morrow for the fall.

Dr. Falconer is lying dangerously ill at his residence on High street.

J. Lashorn and John McAdams had a fight on High street yesterday afternoon. They are now at the station.

Mr. Witlock and daughter, of Piqua, Ohio, are visiting Mr. William F. Lyon.

Mrs. Josie Cannon, of Cincinnati, is visiting Mrs. J. T. Gardner, of this city.

Mrs. Peter Brooks and Miss Mary Brooks, of Cincinnati, are the guests of Mrs. William S. Raman.

Willie Black, while playing at races yesterday afternoon, fell and broke his right arm between the wrist and elbow.

We were solicited this morning by some of our citizens to make an appeal for rain. Our citizens should go to the Exposition Commissioners and make their wants known.

The entertainment last night was very good; that is, what there was of it, and that was little. Messrs. Maund and Tucker performed very cleverly. The boy prodigy, Maser Maund, was good. When Manager Williams stepped from behind the curtain the audience expected him to perform that D. R. solo. But he began by saying: "Ladies and gentlemen: The evening's entertainment is now over." "Is that all?" was responded by persons who sat in the rear of the audience. Quite a number of bouquets were in the house, but none were thrown.

WEST COVINGTON.

A little daughter of Alex. Nile is dangerously ill of malarial fever.

Mr. Henry C. Palmer, of this place, formerly with D. W. Studeker, is now with Ford, Lee & Smith, tobacco manufacturers.

SPRINGFIELD, O.

On the premises of E. S. Bugbey, West High street, may be seen an apple tree in full bloom.

The state at Mat's lofty resort was paralyzed last night. Not even a tramp was heard from.

Detective John T. Norris appeared once more among us last night. Come home for a brace and then a new lay.

Cornellman J. M. Knott forwarded to the Zoological Garden, Cincinnati, to-day, the water-dog, or lampercel.

Mr. Chas. Howard, Superintendent of the C. & C. R., returned home on Wednesday from an Eastern tour.

Bugbey, of Market street, exhibited in a far in front of his place of business on Wednesday what is termed by the knowing ones a water dog, but by Bud Parish a lampercel.

Morrison and Nolan displayed themselves last night at Black's Opera-house to a large crowd who must certainly have appreciated those gentlemen's efforts, if applause is taken in consideration.

Wednesday was an off day with our city's mogul, Mayor Edward Wallace. Among those to pass under the rod were Chris. Seltzer and Tony Gallagher, for violation of the Sunday ordinance; Hubbard Wilson and Fannie Dasey, who were all discharged.

Hubbard Wilson, the teacher of the Pleasant Street Colored School, who was arrested for cruel treatment, administered to Charles Fillmore, a scholar, explained the little affair in the Mayor's Court on Wednesday afternoon, upon which he was discharged. It appeared that the boy richly deserved what he got, and that the beating was done with a very light-watered rat.

On the strength of a telegram from Col. Wappenstein, of Cincinnati, Gulef Schuchman took in procession at the Lagoda House last night two trunks containing cloaks, the property of a Cincinnati house, which were entrusted to an employee by the name of J. J. Chitick, who is at present trying to consume the biggest portion of bad beer and old tam found here.

The many lady and gent friends of Miss Mary Norton betook themselves to that young lady's residence last evening and engaged in a joyous merry-making. From the room of laughter that greeted one when approaching, we vouch that there was more fun in the shortest space of time, and that this blow-out hogged the persimmons.

Fact, Sir, I assure you, during the rounds of the Junior at Black's Opera-house last week in a grand display of the auditorium of the theater he found clinging to one of the benches a fragment of cloth of curious shape, which he took unto himself and laid away with other relics. The Sequel—Baggage-master Jones, of the C. & C. R., has for some days been lamenting a slight loss that befell him after attending a performance there last week, which he did not discover until he began discarding his clothes previous to taking a nap. Conclusion—The wax clinging to the Opera-house seats is at least worth $7 an ounce.

Death invaded on Wednesday the homes of Ezekiah R. Reinsider and Hon. Joshua Davis Sharon, and these honored citizens passed away.

Mr. H. E. Reinsider was born at Newville, Cumberland County, Penn., Nov. 11th, 1824, and came to this city in 1863 when he immediately embarked in the boot and shoe business with his brother, A. Reinsider, under the firm name of Reinsider & Bro. By strict attention to their business they thrived and finally branched out with a trade second to none in our city. The funeral services will be held from his late residence, 190 East High street. Several orders of which deceased was a member will assist in the services.

Joshua Davis Sharon. This venerable old citizen located here in the year 1858, coming from Milford, Penn. He began here by resuming his practice of law, in which he was very successful. He was elected at various times to positions of honor. During General's first administration he was appointed to the Examining Board of Civil Commission, after which he did considerable service in the Patent Office. His remains were interred at Ferncliff to-day.

DAYTON, KY.

Miss Charity Swager is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

See local columns for serious charges affecting a Dayton man.

Mr. Will. Swager has arrived home from a long visit in the country.

Mrs. Sherwood, of Bond Hill, O., is visiting the family of Judge Gunnison.

Mrs. Wm. Martin, of Fourth street, is seriously ill at the home of her mother.

Miss Julia Jones has returned from a long and pleasant visit to Mason County, Ky.

Mr. W. A. Davidson, of Todd & Jefferson streets, walked about with step elastic in a bounding gait.

Mrs. Foster, wife of ex-Postmaster Foster, left for Cananda, N. Y., to-day, where her husband is seriously ill.

The Clark-Stewart wedding at the M. E. Church to-night has set the girls crazy. Rev. Mr. Saunders will officiate.

Last night just after dark, while Mrs. Frank St. John, of Fulton street, and Mrs. Hinson, from Cornith, Ky., who is visiting the former, were strolling along the river bank, they missed their footing and were precipitated some thirty feet to the bottom. Mrs. Hanson escaped without serious injury, but Mrs. St. John, who fell upon her head and shoulders, was so dangerously hurt that she remained unconscious during the night. Her condition is improved to-day.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

(Special River Dispatches to the Star.)

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 9.—Noon.—River 13 feet 2 inches below high water mark. Arrivals: Ashland, St. Louis. No departures to-day. Weather clear and warm.

BROWNVILLE, PA., Oct. 9—10:12 A. M.—River 3 feet 3 inches and stationary. Weather cloudy. Wind east.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 9—9:06 A. M.—Kanhawha River 12 inches and stationary. Weather clear. Wind east.

OIL CITY, PA., Oct. 9—8:20 A. M.—Allegheny River 5 inches and standing. Weather cloudy and raining. Wind north-west.

Boat Hands' Gossip.

Weather clear and pleasant. The W. N. Chancellor will be the regular C. & O. Railroad packet leaving to-day at 5 p. m. for Huntington and all way landings. She sells through tickets to all points East via the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad.

During a past week ending at noon to-day, Wharfmaster Alex. Kennell, collected wharfage from nineteen steamers, amounting to $63.95.

The W. N. Chancellor telegraphs that she will be here at 4 o'clock this evening. She will return to Huntington.

Capt. M. B. Davis' new steamer "Welcome" is at the foot of Main street loading to leave this evening for Catlettsburg. Mr. C. H. Dankworth does the honors of the office and is a clever gentleman.

Welcome is small, neat, light draught packet and is "welcome" sure. She was built for the Wheeling and St. Mary's trade, and will enter the trade as soon as there is sufficient water. Her dimensions are as follows: Length 145 feet, beam 26 feet; depth of hold, 3½ feet. The Custom measured is 185 tons. She has two fine flued boilers twenty feet long and thirty-eight inches in diameter, cylinders twelve inches in diameter, and four feet stroke. She will trim up on fifteen inches, and is probably the lightest boat now running from this city. Captain Ben Goodwin is one of her pilots, and Wes. Carns is expected in this city to-day, and will stand the other watch. The river was stationary at noon to-day, with 3 feet in the channel.

Accidents.

While the Carthage Republican Club was on their way to Sharon last night to witness a banner presentation, and when a Look-alike, a runaway team ran into their wagon, upsetting the same and slightly injuring several of the men. Their drums, banners and robes were wrecked. The boys, however, witnessed the banner presentation, which was done by Captain Schneider.

On returning from this same meeting Colonel C. W. Moulton, brother-in-law of General Sherman, was run into by another runaway, and with his wife, thrown out of his buggy. The occupants were only slightly hurt.

Desperate Conflict With Afghans On the Heights of Cabul.

Spain.

EMANCIPATION IN CUBA PROMISED.

National Associated Press to the Star.

MADRID, Oct. 9.—The Spanish Government will introduce a bill at the November session of the Cortes, emancipating the slaves in Cuba immediately, with five years compulsory service to compensate the owners.

Great Britain.

NON POLITICAL BASKET.

DUBLIN, Oct. 9.—The Corporation of the City of Dublin gave a grand banquet last evening to Sir Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of Exchequer. The affair was non-political.

Austria.

OPENING OF THE REICHSRATH.

VIENNA, Oct. 8.—The Emperor opened the Reichsrath yesterday. In his speech he welcomed the Czech Deputies and indicated a lengthy programme of business, including bills relating to the administration of the army in Herzegovina and Bosnia and to commercial treaties. The deficit of the income for 1880 would, he said, be covered by reforms in the administration and by direct taxation. He further said that the prospect was hopeful for favorable communications with Germany and for mutual trade relations.

France.

AN EMBASSADOR FEELS AGGRIEVED.

PARIS, Oct. 9.—The Italian Ambassador, Signor Cialdini, has tendered his resignation, feeling injured by the official publication of his conversations with M. Waddington, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Afghanistan.

GENERAL ROBERTS ROUTES THE ENEMY.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Another bloody conflict and splendid victory has marked the progress of the English troops toward Cabul. News of this event has been only just received here, but the Intelligence spread rapidly through the city and is creating a great excitement. The advanced reconnoitering parties of General Roberts' column pushed forward during Sunday night on all the roads leading to Cabul from Charasiah, the point at which General Roberts had then placed his headquarters. At daylight on Monday large bodies of Afghans boldly marched out of the gates of the city in the afternoon, after some parade, took possession of the heights which command the city.

General Roberts, although he might then have forced his way into the capital, deemed it inadvisable to permit the enemy to remain on the heights, and ordered an assault. After a bloody fight the Afghans fled in confusion, and blight after height was carried by the British troops in splendid and gallant style. Twelve Afghan guns and two standards were captured. Eight of the Afghans were killed and wounded. The English loss is unknown.

General Roberts intended to advance and enter Cabul on Tuesday. He is sanguine in the belief that the country will soon quiet down and that permanent peace will be the result of the campaign. The head men in the suburbs of Cabul have appeared at General Roberts' headquarters and have paid him their respects.

The Amer. eagerly watched the fight on the heights near Cabul and expressed his satisfaction at the result. It is reported that Bahadur is in possession of mutineers.

INTEREST EXCITEMENT IN LONDON.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Intense excitement prevails here to-day, not only among the Government officials but among those having friends in Roberts' army. Reinforcements have probably reached the General by this time. The natives have cut the wires beyond Thul, but important news will be signalled.

Russia.

PISTOLS FOR THE POLICE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 9.—New regulations have been issued authorizing the police to use weapons to disperse threatening crowds.

Spanish America.

THE HUASCAR CAPTURED AT LAST.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—A dispatch from Valparaiso, under date of to-day, makes the important announcement of the capture of the Peruvian ironclad Huascar off the port of Mejillones by the Chilean fleet. The Huascar had committed much damage to ports on the coast, and had taken several valuable Chilean prizes. Her capture has caused great rejoicing throughout Chili.

COMMON PLEAS.

Eliza Miller against John Miller. Suit for divorce, before Judge Longworth, on the ground of gross neglect. Petition dismissed.

James W. Mills against Mary J. Mills. Similar suit on the ground of willful adultery. The defendant filed a cross-petition charging extreme cruelty. They lived together one year. Decree of divorce granted to the defendant on her cross-petition.

James M. Love against Emily Love. The husband claimed a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty of his wife. The latter, he says, often struck him with a fire-shovel, pulled his hair, and scratched his face with her nails.

She also threw his clothes into the street after having saturated them with coal oil.

After hearing the petition the Court held that it did not make out a case of cruelty, but did make a case of gross neglect, which was not charged in the petition. Leave was given to amend.

SUPERIOR.

Richard Mathers and others against Route No. 16 Street Railroad and the City. Suit for an injunction to restrain the Railroad Company from running its cars on Grand street. Judge Foraker refused the injunction.

REVIEW OF THE CINCINNATI DAILY MARKETS.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 9.—P. M.

There is no meeting of the Merchants' Exchange to-day and quotations are very little, if any, different from those of yesterday:

BREASTS.

Flour: quiet and steady, with local demand, mostly for best grades. Extra quoted at $1.50 to $1.60, family at $1.40 to $1.50, extra at $1.30 to $1.40, and low grades at $1.20 to $1.30.

Barley: steady and quiet. Fall at $1.00 to $1.10, and spring at $1.10 to $1.20.

Good to choice arrival and for the latter for $
